TRAFFIC ORDINANCES VIOLATED.

Consequently Many Offenders Are Penalized in City Court—$25 Fine Given Putnam Man.

Deputy Judge Frank P. Fenton of the police court had a number of cases to dispose of Monday, the major portion for violations of the city traffic ordinance, the authorities having started a campaign to make drivers of all sorts of vehicles live up to the ordinance or suffer the consequences. Harry Richardson, who drives wagons for C. E. Leonard, was charged with driving in an easterly direction on the "one way street" between Windham road and Pleasant street. He admitted his guilt, but said that he had been here only a month and did not know it was a one-way street. He was fined $2 without costs.

John Bok, charged with a similar offense as Richardson, also pleaded guilty and claimed ignorance of the ordinance. He was likewise fined $2 without costs.

Herbert T. Clark, charged with driving an automobile on the left hand side of Main street contrary to the ordinance, entered a plea of not guilty. He contended that he left to the left to avoid striking some people. Patrolman Parsons, who is doing traffic duty this month, said that Mr. Clark was on the wrong side of the street for a considerable distance, and that when he spoke to Mr. Clark, the latter appeared to be provoked and indignant. The court found Mr. Clark guilty and imposed a fine of $2 without costs.

Theodore Marrow, charged with operating an automobile on the one-way street contrary to the ordinance, pleaded guilty and was fined $2 without costs.

William Mullen, of Manchester, charged with operating a motorcycle within the city after sunset without a rear light, pleaded guilty. He said that the rear light broke off while he was coming from Coventry Saturday night. It was late and there was no place to go to have the light fixed. He was seen by the officer shortly after midnight. In view of the circumstances the court imposed a nominal fine of $2 without costs.

John Wylick, 20, was charged with riding a bicycle on the sidewalk of Dunham street. William C. Lyman was appointed guardian ad litem and he entered a plea of guilty for the accused. He said that Wylick knew very little English and was not aware that he was riding on the sidewalk. He was fined $1 without costs.

Roy A. Paine, of Putnam, a tobacco salesman, who on June 5 while operating an automobile on Main street, struck the six-year-old daughter of Archibald Miner of Main street, was charged with operating the automobile on the wrong side of the street and he entered a plea of guilty. Prosecuting Attorney E. Frank Bugbee told the court that at the time of the accident Paine was on the left hand side of the road. The child was going across the street and the mud-guard struck her knees. Paine stopped the car, gave his name and address to the mother, took the child home, and afterwards paid the doctor. The little girl was not injured much. Where Paine had made his mistake was in not reporting to the police. He recommended a fine and the court imposed a fine of $15 and costs, which Paine paid.

Charles Cote, arrested Sunday afternoon while dancing on the sidewalk on High street, pleaded guilty to the charge of intoxication and was fined $5 and costs, which he paid.

Henry Polvin, arrested Saturday night on complaint of his brother John, charged with breach of the peace, entered a plea of guilty. His brother said that Henry came into the shop and started to talk loud. He was told to shut up and refused to do so. John said that he had worked hard that day, had no supper and was nervous. Acting under an impulse he had his brother arrested and he did not care to press the case very hard. The court imposed a fine of $1 and costs, which was paid.

The court, there being no objection on the part of anyone, condemned and ordered destroyed the liquor taken by the state police in raids made at the home of John Bonaficio and Victor Monaco June 6. Prosecuting Attorney Frank L. Powell poured the liquor into the sewer, after the session of court.

Pains Often Mean Uric Acid Poison

Pay Attention to Pains—Most People Have Rheumatism and Don't Know It.

Ouch! Does it hurt to move your arms, legs, bend your back or stretch your muscles? Be careful and take heed in time. Rheumatism is stealing on you and may cripple you if you don't stop uric acid from settling in your veins and muscles.

Rheumatism, a great specialist's prescription, chases this poison out of the system and gives relief from all forms of Rheumatism. It acts through the secret of the trouble, the kidneys, stops the formation of uric acid, then drives out through the bowels that which is in the blood.

Genuine Rheuma (see that you get the trade-marked package) is sold by Lee & Osgood and all druggists for 50 cents. Money back if not satisfied.

This action was taken in view of the coming Old Home and School Week. Leo L. Thompson was appointed a member of the fire police in place of H. H. Lyman, resigned.

The street committee was instructed to finish the construction of a bank wall bordering the property of Adelaide Stanton on Main street. The work was begun some twelve years ago, when lines and grades were established, but was never finished. The sum of $125 was appropriated for that purpose.
